

Su Teatro Means Your Theatre El Corazon de la Ciudad

Estimados Amigos,

Because of your support over the past 33 years , Su Teatro has become a part of the cultural and artistic heart of Latinos in the city; in September 2006 Su Teatro will move to the geographic heart of the Denver: Su Teatro is returning home to the Westside.

After 16 years at the Elyria Elementary School Building, El Centro Su Teatro will re-establish itself at 200 Santa Fe Drive. There, we will become part of the vibrant Santa Fe Drive Arts District. Su Teatro established locations in the Westside, in its early years and has always maintained a connection with the community through various projects. The time has come to place our community center stage in the “Heart of the City”.

Can 250 raise a half a million?

The Gates Family Foundation has thrown down the gauntlet, they will match each gift of $1,000 or more up to $100,000, we have a second anonymous donor who will match the second $100,000. We are still looking for a match for the last $50,000. How can we do it?

250 for a $1,000

Host a House Party – We are looking for 500 people to donate or raise $1,000.

- $1,000 over one year is $85 a month
- You can do it by hosting house parties
- Call 10 friends and ask for $100
- Host a bake sale, sell burritos, tamales
- Go door to door.

Build the Network – This purchase is a joint effort.

- Call people on our behalf
- Bring us the names of people, who will donate, participate, and help to orchestrate our campaign
- Tell everyone you know

The essence of Su Teatro is you – our community. We are proud to have energetic, authentic, and meaningful engagement with you. We are pleased to offer high quality artistic and cultural programs that you have made possible.

- A full season of theatre in English and Spanish.
- The Cultural Arts Institute, providing arts and education programs for your children.
- The XicanIndie Film Festival, the only Latino Film Festival in the region.
- The Neruda Poetry Festival and Barrio Slam.
- The Chicano Music Festival and Auction.

A regional cultural arts center will better serve our community, provide your children better access to their history, language and culture. Su Teatro is the organization to carry out this project. Together we can change lives.

Sinceramente,
